Hi, my dear teacher! In this letter I will briefly describe holiday resorts in our peaceful, sunny, almighty Kazakhstan!

Firstly, I will describe Borovoe. It's near the Balhash lake. Have you ever heard about Balhash? That's largest lake in Kazakhstan. In Borovoe, you can witness very clear nature, large amounts of forests and parks. I will recommend Borovoe for you, if you like nature.

By the way, if you never been to Kazakhstan, you must visit Almaty. There are many attractions, museums, and Almaty is really developed city. Many people firstly visit Almaty, rather than other cities. Almaty has a rich story. Also, there are mountains nearby.

If you want to see biggest peak of Kazakhstan, you might visit Khan-Tengli. It's our Everest mountain.

IV. Writing. A.

In Khan-Tengri you could see our neighbours, like China and Kyrgyzstan.

If you want to need to see our capital, you have to go into the Astana. It's at North of the Kazakhstan. Astana also the developed city. But there is problem with ecology. Ok, I got nothing to say, Bye teacher.

The most famous magazine has asked their own followers to describe the typical types of weddings in our country. I will try to submit and give you the full imagination of the Kazakh traditional wedding events.

First of all, I would like to describe the meaning of Kazakh weddings. The biggest different from another countries is that the our wedding evenings are loud, fantastic, funny and guests "lost" their minds and ^{forget} all personal problems. Organizations doing kind of games between guests. If they are win, then they will take special present. Another special fact is that the wedding takes really a lot of time. Meanwhile wedding in other countries takes maximum 1-2 hour, our weddings usually takes more than 5-6 hours, maybe even more.

In the second, is that the range of guests. Simple event give usually more than 500 000 guests for one evening. That's diffenently incredible!

In conclusion, the traditional Kazakh wedding is unbelivable for many countries, because of the types of traditions. I could write more and more, but even this paper is not big enough for all of this!!!

I bought a smartphone recently, but i sense that it has a problem, so i decided to write letter to the manager. It has to be done now before it gets too late.

"Good afternoon, manager. I bought a brand new phone from your shop and i noticed that it doesn't work properly. Firstly, the phone lags a lot. Secondly, the phone pushes too many notifications and gets hot even in simple web browsing. Next, the volume buttons are jammed and goes either mute or at max volume, which is inconvenient. Subsequently, the unknown number threatens to expose my personal data into multiple social medias. Additionally, it has a lot mistakes in software. Following this, my phone installs programs without my permission. So, i request you to do something with my phone." As i finished the complaint, i sent it to the shop, including the phone. The next day, manager checked the phone, called me to the shop. As i came to the shop, manager said that they will give the repaired phone back to me, noting that the shop sent me the wrong product by mistake.

In summary, thanks to my bravery and the honesty of manager, i returned the good condition of the phone. 191 words.

When I entered the building, someone suddenly bumped against me, making both of us back off in surprise. I was about to apologize, but once I opened my mouth, the stranger took a quick leave, seeming like in rush. I was stunned, not knowing how to react to that kind of event, however just brushed it off and went to continue my shopping. From the time to time I kept thinking about that stranger. It was such a weird thing, so just simply ran away. The stranger also kinda looked a lot like me, wearing the same coat and having the matching hats. It amused me, making me to believe that it's somewhat of a fate. But the next second I took a basket, security quickly caught me, starting to declare something about staying calm and return the stuff I "stole". I went in panic, not understanding the situation at all. I refused, telling that I did nothing and that I have no clue about what's happening, they kept insisting and called the cops. Later, I was at police station, sitting there because they were sure that it's me based on my reaction.

What's the ~~thirst~~ first thing that comes to your mind when you hear the word "wedding"? Probably, it's such things as: rings, a couple, the bride, the fiancé, and many others. On this piece of paper, I want to tell you more about our weddings.

In my country wedding is not just a good reason to skip a day on your work, it's not just a holiday day, it's the day when two young souls, finally, can ~~ate~~ enter their new chapter of life. When they can start a family, create a human being together, make a strong bond with each other. When they can call themselves a family.

Our wedding has many traditions. As usual, the bride wears a beautiful white wedding dress and her fiancée wears a classical suit. Each participant of their family is near them, they support the couple, support their new home, ~~less~~ their choice.

The wedding set up lovely and beautifully. Each side of lovers organise everything together. But usually the man's side pay for everything.

The lovers stand at the altar together, holding hands. Their families giving speeches. Then the love birds give their vows, last speeches. They say "yes" to forever and ever, and then, they engage rings and share a beautiful full of love kiss. From now on, they officially become the husband and the wife.

I hope that everyone will get to experience this beautiful event. Not just as a guest but as a main person. Finally your true love in one time can be a hard difficult task. But the true love exists, and it comes to every person, at the very right time.

E) Hello, Apple company!

I am writing with a purpose to inform about my issues with a new phone. I have bought it a week later and everything worked properly. I put all of my personal information there and manage everything. However, a few days later, I noticed some problems with the sound. To be more specific, I can't hear anything, not listen to music, watch videos and so on. (However, a few) Even though, I went to the phone center, they told me that they are not able to fix this issue and gave me an advice to write to the Apple company. Moreover, I waited for a couple of days hoping that it would work, I just need to wait, but as you can see, it wouldn't. So, I ask you to answer this e-mail and offer any possible decisions to solve this problem. I'll be looking for your answer.

Thank you,

Good bye.

Bucobai

My country has many beautiful and comfortable holiday resorts. For instance, I want to talk about Bucobai. Back to my childhood, I had visited Bucobai with my grandpa during my summer vacation. It was one of the most ideal place. All around me was green and blue water, beautiful nature, and the grass were looking pretty. But there was so cold. Nevertheless, it was so interesting and creatively.

I realised how beautifully nature is. Because it has so many animals, grass, mountains, weather, trees and others. I was ordinary this time ever before. I stopped playing around here and there with my friends. Walking down in the bridge I was inspiration of nature and thinking about all of the nature. There was so many people who came to reach a nature and so many tourists who travel all around the world. It summer vacation, so many people go to the Bucobai with their friends and family to spend time friendly and happy. They walk down in the bridge, swim, run around the beach, have dish together.

In conclusion, Bucobai is the best holiday resort in my country. People can stay there and spend their summer vacation. Also they can inspiration of nature and work. Bucobai has beautiful nature, big mountains, lakes, blue and green water all around, animals, trees, and other interesting things. So I think every people should visit Bucobai and stay there and spend their holiday. Because it worth its.

I'm writing this letter because the smartphone i bought in your shop does not work properly. Two weeks ago, i was searching for a modern and convenient phone for my work, and came to your shop. You recommended to me to buy a new and good phone that was popular in the whole world, and relying on your recommendation i bought it.

When i opened this phone for the first time it was working well, but right on the next day it started lagging. I was trying to solve this problem, but it kept working worse. After a couple of days the phone started to show a lot of spam and add. I brought this smartphone to the master, and he said that there was a virus from the day i first time opened it.

I guess, your shop gave ^{me} a broken phone and these problems cause a lot of my financial problems. I want my money back and i will return this phone back to your shop. I hope you'll understand me and my situation.

To "White Wind stores net."

I visited one of your stores in city of Taraz, Tole Bi st. Now I want the administration of the store to pay attention to troubles I had to face trying to use the services you provide.

I also want to mention beforehand, that I was in hurry and quite emotional during the deal of my purchase, and now I assume that your employee used my mental condition to make me take a lower quality device, that would be good for his personal aims.

So, about the device itself. I couldn't recognise it this in the store, but as I've been told later, the phone isn't new like it's meant to be! And it obviously has issues with working because of it. I've sent my info in separate letter to clients support service. Hoping on your soon helps soon as possible.

In my family, we were only four people involves my dad, mum, my brother and me. I'm not sure if I can tell this as a secret, but there is one thing you should know about my family. In fact, the people that I call „mum and dad“ not actual my parents. This is not deep secret than we must keep. They brought me from the house of children who lost or don't have parents. Also, my brother was from that kind of house, but in different city. In August, they bring me to a different house. Just imagine, a 7 year-old child have to stay in that unknown house with strange people. I didn't have anyone in my side. But they were caring about us all the time. They gave time to get similar to this position. After 8 years, when I turn 15, I opened something that I shouldn't know. I wish I had never knew about it. When they first adopted me, they said that they knew my actual parents and was close to them by blood. Although, the whole time they accepted me wrong. I found documents (that) as proof. My whole story and name was completely different. It was only then that I realised they had mistaken me for someone else.

It was a sunny day, I was walking from school and wanted to buy some snacks for the movie. I wasn't expecting meeting someone, so I was surprised when two guys from my school shouted my name. We know each other, so I walked to him (for) because it was interesting, what do they want from me?

"Hey" I said, "Can I help you?"

"Yes, that's why we called you." answered the boy named Mark.
 "I know you're smart, could you please help me with preapring for my exam?"

"Ok, okay, can we meet tomorrow at the library?" I answered.
 "No, It's urgent, come with us, my exam is tomorrow".
 I didn't know what to do, but from their eyes I felt like they really needed help, so I went with them.

When I stepped into their house, the smell was so bad and it was hard to relax there.

"Come to our room" said Mark's brother Tim.

The first second I stepped in their room, I felt how Mark's strong hands take my hands and pushed me on the floor. Tim locked the door and he had a big knife in his hand.

"Did you think that you can be rude with us?" -

"No, I don't understand you. Please, let me go! I didn't do anything! I was screaming. A thousand of thoughts were running through my head. "Why me? Did I do something wrong?"

"Stop pretending like you're unknown of the things you did to us. You could just go with me on a date, but you laughed at my face and kissed another boy."

"What?! I didn't do this, this is first time ever I talked to you!"

"Stop pretending, Sara." - the time stopped. Mark was cutting my fingers, my hand and my neck. My name is Lara. It was too late. It was only then that I realised they had mistaken me for someone else. My twin sister.

B) Description of a typical wedding in my country

How does typical wedding in my country went? I am

I am from Kazakhstan and our people are well-known for their love for big performances, bright events and large celebrations in general. Even buying something new, no matter of value: house, car, TV set - means big event for the whole family. So can you imagine what happens when it comes to the wedding - one of the most significant moments of persons life.

Wedding in Kazakhstan doesn't contain only wedding day - it's summary of 3 events - Kudalyk, Kyz Uzaty and wedding.

Kudalyk and Kyz Uzaty represents visiting both sides (grooms and brides) meeting new kelin (bride) or saying taking your daughter to the new family. Kudalyk for grooms relatives and Kyz Uzaty for brides involve preparing amazing tables full of dishes, presents for the other side, which shows respect and appreciation towards each other.

But if Kudalyk takes part at the first half of the day and ends simply with presents - Kyz Uzaty starts at the evening and lasts till the 12 am. At 12 am bride groom takes bride to his family's house. That's why Kyz Uzaty means taking your daughter to the new family. Now she is kelin, part of the grooms family - with new day her new life starts. After that she lives with them. Usually kyz Uzaty celebrations are very sentimental, full of pure siblings and parents love.

After these two events time slides towards main one - wedding day. Wedding day meets hundreds of guests - even neighbors get invited. Because in my country every happy moment of the person would bring smile to everyone around him or her. ~~the~~ Luxurious halls - which looks like castles - with gold and diamonds, large venue. Bride with her princess-like dress and groom in the perfect suit are the stars, who sit right at the head of the hall. ~~the~~ And celebration will last untill last guest will leave, usually till 2-3 am. The unique feature of people in Kazakhstan is always being late - no one knows why and when did it start, but as unspoken rule it's always present at any wedding. If invitation said that starting at 6pm - I can promise - people will start only start to come at 7pm.

So this is how I am describing typical wedding in my country. Everything that happens - are the same as 100 years ago, just modernized for our time. Kazakh people were always fond of big and long celebrations.

B) A typical wedding in my country

A Kazakh wedding is one of the most colourful and joyful celebrations in my country. It reflects centuries of tradition while also embracing modern influences, symbolising the unity of two families and the beginning of a new life together. Preparation for the wedding usually starts long in advance, as both families carefully plan every detail of the big day.

The celebration often begins with the betaspar, a traditional ceremony in which the bride's face is unveiled and the guests offer blessings and advice. After that, a grand feast takes place, featuring national dishes such as besh barmak, kumys, and baysars. Furthermore, music, dancing, and laughter fill the air as relatives and friends celebrate late into the night. Throughout the event, people express their joy through songs, poems, and warm wishes to the newlyweds.

In conclusion, a Kazakh wedding is not merely a party; it is a symbol of love, respect, and cultural pride. Each time such a wedding takes place, it reminds everyone of the strength of family ties and the ^{timeless} beauty of Kazakh traditions.
