Nowadays, plenty of teenagers around the world have many bad habits as smoking, watching phones all day and everyone forget about their health. Indeed, avoiding bad habits is difficult, so how can teenagers avoid them?

Firstly, teens can not change their habits instantly, but by taking small steps everyone can become a better person. So, in my opinion, teens need to talk about their feelings more openly, maybe bad habits can be caused because of stress and pressure from school. Secondly, if they want to stop watching phones and lying all day, I can give advice to go to the gym, maybe some of them can do sports, but

It is not essential thing, you can just walk every day at least one hour, It can help you a lot.

To sum up, bad habits can not disappear in one day, so by taking small steps, and never giving up you can avoid bad habits and reach to benefit, good habits.

- ③ Should students do homework every day?
- Every people goes to school and learn. Over the years teachers give us homework and we need to study also at home everyday. But should students do homework every day?
- On one hand, teachers that give us homework want to students learn information from lessons better. And it is really helpful because in one hour we can not remind all that we have said. Also, there are many students and every student need attention from teacher, but it is not impossible.
- On the other hand, we need to relax after school, and don't think about homework and what will teacher say. Some students can not understand the theme so they will do homework for a long time and it we lose our free time. We can hang out with friends, help to family, play videogames, online games but we need to do homework and it is a really difficult problem.
- In the end, homework has 1 advantages and disadvantages that I have said and in the present it's a really problem that we-students can't change.

When I opened the door, I saw something amazing. It was a magic pen. The pen had a wonderful habit. I was drawing anything else, that came to my mind onto paper with it. Suddenly, I heard a loud from the door. It was the thing, that I had drawn. I was really shocked by seeing it.

I decided to tell to my friend about it. He was really shocked too. Then he said, "Let's me draw something I want". He drew a car. We were waiting for it. Unfortunately, the car didn't exist. We thought that pen is limited. So, we couldn't do anything by it. If it wasn't limited, we would draw a robot. The robot would be usefull and helpfull for us. Of course, we would use it wisely.

My favorite computer game is Genshin Impact. This game is very interesting. I will tell you about it.

First of all you have to choose character: Lumine or Aether. They are siblings. I chose Aether and now my goal is - to find my sister Lumine. An angry woman separated us, because of our strength. While you are trying to find your sister you will explore regions and meet new characters. The first region is - Mondstadt. One of my favorite. A beautiful city where everyone is living their best life. People there fond of songs and beer. By the way, every region has their own element, and archon. My favorite is - Barbara. His name is Venti. I love him very much. I even have a shelf with is full of his figures and posters. About other regions you will know later. That's all, bye!

(Homework is very important part of getting new information)

Homework is one of the most important parts of studying. Homework fixes all information in our brain.

A lot of students don't like doing homework. They think that homework isn't important. However, homework gives you possibility to know something new, search information about the topic.

In my opinion, students should do homework every day.

Firstly, It shows your respect to your teacher. If you do homework she will be pleased.

Secondly, if you do your homeworks every day, your knowledge would be better every day.

Should students do homework?

Nowdays around the world, all student have homeworks. Usually we spend like 2 or 1 hour in a day. But sometimes students can spend lots of hours.

On the one hand it's a big advantage. Do your homework by yourself helps your brain work. Students can get good marks by doing homework or use the knowledge on the exam or tests.

On the other hand, it can have not so lot of disadvantages. But studying by hand you can forget about sleep time or maybe don't care about sleeping time. Usually the problems comes to your health. You can have higher risk of heart disease, obesity, and depression or stress.

Moreover the depression or stress are really terrified one I can say. Cause when you in depression or stress you can think about really bad thing.

All in All Studying has more advantages than disadvantages. But no matter what students need to study, firstly they are studying for themselves. So studying or doing homework is important.

A. Write an email to your friend telling them about your favorite game and why you enjoy it.

Dear Amir,

I have got an interesting thing to tell you about! If you remember, we've played an amazing game with you. It was about 3 years ago. However, I've found a game called Brawl Stars. I installed it last summer. Firstly, I couldn't understand the rules of this game. It was too difficult to understand it. But after a few weeks, I did it. The main idea of this game is to collect trophies. Also there are a lot of characters to choose. Tara, Squick and Leon are my favourite ones. But mostly, I prefer playing for Leon. Nowadays, most of my classmates play the Brawl Stars game. I forgot to tell you, that I've got the most trophies in our school. I hope it was an interesting story about my favorite game. Also, I enjoy playing it, because it's really exciting to unlock new characters. I think, if you install this game, we'll have more fun playing together.

With love,

Your best friend Kemal!

Wassup, my fellow! looks like you asked about what videogame I like huh? Well... let's say it's a Ghost Of Tsushima on PS4. It's a game about Jin Sakai, the warrior that rejected his Samurai principles to defeat and defend the Japan earth from evil Mongols by any cost. As we progress through the game we obtain more levels, and skills to boost the benefits of our playstyles. Speaking of playstyles, there's two ways to fight, although, you don't have to stick on one: you can take the true samurai path and duel opponents, to guarantee the 1-3 kills if you win the duel, but you can take the "ghost" path. by killing enemies from the shadows. But even so, you can play as you want, you can use the smoke bomb while in open fight to blind opponents, then killing them immediately, because blinded opponents are vulnerable to stealth kills. The possibilities are limitless, but you fight the bosses by samurai path anyways.

"Should students do homework every day?"

School - it's the place where we educate, study and spend time with our friends. In school we should behave as we can be more polite because it's a educating place.

In school, we mostly study and because of this we've got a homework for all subjects. It helps us to educate wisely and remember the materials nicely. But when the homework is for all subjects, sometimes it gets really boring and soon we'll get exhausted. Most students do it really quick but sometimes we've got a many tasks to do.

I think the homeworks shouldn't be tasked every day. Teenagers should just relax one day and get homeworks the next day; because now most of modern teenagers are lazy and they get tired fast.

However, homework is more helpful for us because it will help with memory and educate. The homework can be really stressful and tiring. But we shouldn't forget that it's for us and our future.

Should students do homework every day?

We all know that in every school, every teachers gives us homeworks, yet we do not know, why do they give us homeworks if we can do those tasks at (school) school?

To begin with, doing tasks again, especially alone can help us to remember and understand the topic deeply. We do tasks remembering the essential things that teacher taught us at school, which improves our brain thinking.

Secondly, we take responsibility doing things or tasks that teacher told us to do. It improves our strength, our responsibility and also knowledge. That is why we should do always our homework - to understand and improve our brain thinking, our knowledge, the new information.

To sum up, homework is not just normal thing because by doing it we get a (chance) chance to deepen our mind, thoughts and understand new topics and facts every single day. We should not be angry at teachers, thinking why do they give so much homeworks. We should be thankful for them for teaching us.

Essay. "Should students do homework every day?"

Many people, especially parents, believe students should do their homework every day, but students think they should not. Parents think that doing homework is easy, while for students it is the worst thing in the world.

On the one hand, doing homework help with improving brain on your own. You could understand materials that you could not at school, and it helps in the future exams, tasks, tests because you will remember a lot.

On the other hand, homework can be too much, because at school students learn many subjects, ~~and~~ sometimes teachers can give more tasks. In addition, many teenagers have other courses and hobbies, so it can be difficult. Many of them spend about 4-5 hours to do homework. As a result, there will be lack of sleep, lack of concentration, and problems with mental and physical health.

In conclusion, homework is significant thing, and if students want to do it, they can do it. But they need to know possibilities and amount of homework. Personally, I think they can do it if they want, but they must not to do it.

game what perfect for us. I take up to play this game recently, even so I understand that this game is my favorite. Name of this game is "Genshin Impact" I suggest that you heard this name somehow. Let me set up the summary of this mobile game: you will appear in the fantastic world, where exist the magical elements: pyro, hydro, anemo, (K) cryo, dendro and so on. Your own character will have one element - anemo. Moreover, a special of your character - he will take all of elements later. It depends on stories that you must complete. By the way, I really enjoyed the stories in this mobile game. You will pick up with a lot of character, and everyone has a unique skills, apperience, past and element. For example, when I started to play I strightly liked one person - his name is Kaye. (I) His charisma, (e) cryo element and look are captivated me. In generall there are a lot of character who I liked but Kaye was my first love. In the (beginning) begining you will go to the one place - it's a (con) country named Mondstate. I think the creator of this game made Mondstate similar to German culture, cause when I was there the buildings remind me German. However there are other country, like Sumery, Inadzuma, fountain, Natlan and so on. Seven country for seven elements. Your own character is a boy, who looking for his lost sister. He's a traveller with his companion. You will travel all the word with your companion - Paimon. On the one (bad) hand, it's adventure. On the other hand, it's deep phylosophie too. The main reason why I loved this game - it's broaden & deep topics (like) ^{suphas:} friendship, conned between singles, loyalty and even love. You will observe realationships of characters and families. Plus, you can collect a characters by farming primogemes. It's particularly exciting, because the character who you want can be yours. Therefore, it's opened world and you can play co-op with other players. You know what? I find a new friend by this way! (3) If you download this game, I will be happy. I certain this splendid game is perfect for you too. (I'd (3)) I would like to play with you soon.

Your bestie, Sulukhan.

When I opened the door, I saw something amazing. I was feeling excited and delighted because my friends came to my house to surprise me for my birthday when I opened the door of my house. B. The homework is a significant part of school. The teachers have to give a homework for students, and they must do it every day.

Nowadays, there are many quarrels about this. Most people think that doing homework helps students to study better and fix their knowledges better. It improves their brain. The students' parents agree with it and they ask for giving else extra homework, they believe that it is useful for their children. It is to talk about me that is right for giving many tasks at school. But however, it could be hard for student, to combine their housework and homework. Sometimes, teacher can give too many homework and it is made the student exhausted. Most people think that schools should give less homework for students. They believe that it will bring more free time for students to do their another activities. For instance, instead of doing homework they can direct their force for making something more useful. They can develop in different ways, like some extra courses. In my school, teachers don't give us many homework, but it's enough, so that's why I have my free time for my hobbies. And it's really helpful.

Finally, the homework has advantages and disadvantages. It's depends on schools. But students should do tasks, that give them schools.
